

	INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM	T-SI-PO-01
	INFORMATION SECURITY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY	Date	04-01-2021
		Version	02
		Page	1 de 1

TAMA INGENIEROS S.A.C. is a company in the metal-mechanical manufacturing industry that designs and develops engineering to transform steel and special alloys into equipment and machinery. It also manufactures components used in different productive sectors.

To these ends, we are committed to:

- Keep sensitive information in a confidential and accurate manner; and make it available in an appropriate way meet the needs of the company.
- Adequately protect the information handled during the execution of duties.
- Be consistent and aware of the need keep information secure and act protect it.
- Include third parties involved (customers, suppliers, etc.) in the requirements of this policy in our confidentiality agreements.
- Implement proper monitoring to ensure that all information security events are identified and corrected.
- Comply with the requirements applicable to our industry, laws, and the requirements of the information security management system.
- Take the necessary steps to identify transgressions of the information security management system, as well as define and communicate their consequences to employees and third parties involved.
- Designate an information security officer with authority and independence for compliance with the information security management system.
- Improve the information security management system on an ongoing basis.